The Big Lie principle, as elaborated by Hitler and Goebbels, is that if you tell a small lie, youâ€™ll be caught on it, but if you tell a really big, even outrageous whopper, people will tend to believe it. Itâ€™s an insight into human psychology which helps explain how those two second-stringers wound up seizing the levers of the most advanced nation in 20th Century Europe and running it into ...

Three studies were conducted to ascertain how quickly people form an opinion about web page visual appeal. In the first study, participants twice rated the visual appeal of web homepages presented for 500 ms each. The second study replicated the first, but participants also rated each web page on seven specific design dimensions. Visual appeal was found to be closely related to most of these.
