The determining factor for a Thinker (historian, philosopher, scientist, writer, artist, et al.) to be considered a public intellectual is the degree to which he or she is implicated and engaged with the vital reality of the contemporary world; that is to say, participation in the public affairs of society. Consequently, being designated as a public intellectual is determined by the degree of ...

As the interest in using systems thinking in education continues to grow, so does the need for new tools to support those efforts. One of the most widely-used systems thinking tools has been STELLA, a modeling language that runs on the Macintosh developed by High Performance Systems (see In Review: itthink, Dec. 1990/Jan. 1991).

Hello! You have landed on this page because you were heading for one of the old websites made by me, David Gauntlett, in the distant past. Most of the stuff on sites like "theory.org.uk" and "newmediastudies.com" was 12-20 years old, and I kept it all on the internet for a long long time in case anybody really needed it, but I think that time has now gone.
