In 1966, Marvel Comics introduced the Black Panther, an African monarch who became the first non-caricatured black superhero. The first African-American superhero, the Falcon, followed in 1969, and three years later, Luke Cage, a self-styled "hero-for-hire", became the first black superhero to star in his own series. In 1989, the Monica Rambeau incarnation of Captain Marvel was the first female ...

Superhero fiction is a genre of speculative fiction examining the adventures, personalities and ethics of costumed crime fighters known as superheroes, who often possess superhuman powers and battle similarly powered criminals known as supervillains. The genre mainly originated in and is most common to American comic books, though it has expanded into through adaptations and original works.

When I first heard about this book I was incredibly excited. A writer from McSweeney's wrote a satirical superhero book? Yes, please! Captain Freedom starts off like most superhero stories - the hero in pursuit of the evil villain Genghis Kong is flying high above the streets and wondering frantically if his creme brulee was taken out of the oven in time.
